Dear directors

Extension of time for holding annual general meeting (AGM) declined

I am writing to you about your application to extend the period of time for your corporation to hold its 2019 AGM.

It is a requirement under section 201-150 of the Corporations (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander) Act 2006 (CATSI Act) that an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation must hold an AGM within 5 months after the end of its financial year.

I have made a determination to not grant the extension. This is because I do not believe the reasons you gave in your application are enough for me to determine that the requirements of the relevant provisions would be inappropriate in the circumstances or impose unreasonable burdens.

You have the right to ask for a review of this decision by this office under section 620-5 of the CATSI Act. The review would be done by a different person to the one who declined your application. To have the decision reviewed you must write to us within 28 days of receiving this letter setting out your reasons.

If you would like to discuss this letter please call me on our freecall number 1800 622 431 (not free from mobile phones) or email info@oric.gov.au.

For information about the CATSI Act and running corporations see www.oric.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

James Rose

Delegate of the Registrar
